Tracking Error

Each of the Funds listed in the table employs a “passive” investment strategy designed to replicate the performance of its benchmark index. Some of the Funds attempt to fully replicate the index by holding all of the component securities, in approximately the same proportion as their weighting in the index. Other Funds instead use an index sampling process, holding a representative sample of securities which approximates the full index in terms of key risk factors and other characteristics.

Tracking error measures the volatility of the return difference between each Fund and its relevant index. It is calculated as the standard deviation of the tracking difference between the Fund and the index (gross of fees for the trailing 36-month period, or since the Fund’s inception if it does not have 36 months of performance history). Realised tracking error may vary from the anticipated tracking error, depending on a range of circumstances. These include transaction costs, securities lending income and withholding tax differences. The anticipated tracking error and realised tracking error are not expected to vary significantly under normal circumstances.

For the year ended 30 June 2025, the following tracking error disclosed for each Fund is based on an accumulation shares class that is in the same currency as the Fund’s base currency:

Financial Reporting Process Description of Main Features

The Board is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control and risk management systems of the Company in relation to the financial reporting process. Such systems are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve the Company's financial reporting objectives and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The Board has established processes regarding internal control and risk management systems to ensure its effective oversight of the financial reporting process. These include appointing the Administrator to maintain the books and records. The Administrator is authorised and regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland and must comply with the rules imposed by the Central Bank of Ireland. The Administrator is also contractually obliged to prepare for review and approval by the Board the annual report, including financial statements intended to give a true and fair view, and the half-yearly financial statements. The Board evaluates and discusses significant accounting and reporting issues as the need arises. From time to time the Board also examines and evaluates the Administrator's financial accounting and reporting routines and monitors and evaluates the external auditors' performance, qualifications and independence.

The Administrator has operating responsibility in respect of its internal controls in relation to the financial reporting process and the Administrator's report to the Board.

Risk Assessment

The Board is responsible for assessing the risk of irregularities whether caused by fraud or error in financial reporting and ensuring the processes are in place for the timely identification of internal and external matters with a potential effect on financial reporting.

The Board has also put in place processes to identify changes in accounting rules and recommendations and to ensure that these changes are accurately reflected in the Company's financial statements.

Control Activities

The Administrator maintains control structures to manage the risks over financial reporting. These control structures include appropriate division of responsibilities and specific control activities aimed at detecting or preventing the risk of significant deficiencies in financial reporting for every significant account in the financial statements and the related notes in the Company's annual report. Examples of control activities exercised by the Administrator include analytical review procedures, reconciliations and automated controls over IT systems.

Information and Communication

The Company's policies and the Board's instructions with relevance for financial reporting are updated and communicated via appropriate channels, such as e-mail, correspondence and meetings, to ensure that all financial reporting information requirements are met in a complete and accurate manner.

Monitoring

The Board receives regular presentations and reviews reports from the Depositary, Manager, Investment Managers and Administrator. The Board also has an annual process to ensure that appropriate measures are taken to consider and address the shortcomings identified and measures recommended by the independent auditors.

Capital Structure

No person has a significant direct or indirect holding of securities in the Company. No person has any special rights of control over the Company's share capital. There are no restrictions on voting rights.

Powers of the Directors

With regard to the appointment and replacement of Directors, the Company is governed by its Articles of Association, Irish statute comprising the Companies Act 2014, as amended, the UCITS Regulations, the CBI UCITS Regulations and the Listing Rules of the Euronext Dublin as applicable to investment funds. The Articles of Association themselves may be amended by special resolution of the shareholders.

The Board is responsible for managing the business affairs of the Company in accordance with the Articles of Association. The Directors may delegate certain functions to the Administrator and other parties, subject to supervision and direction by the Directors. The Directors have delegated the day-to-day administration of the Company to the Administrator and the investment management and distribution functions to the Investment Managers. Consequently, apart from Lisa Harlow, none of the Directors is an executive Director.

The Articles of Association provide that the Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property or any part thereof and may delegate these powers to the Investment Managers.

The Directors may, at any time and from time to time, temporarily suspend the calculation of the Net Asset Value of a particular Fund and the issue, repurchase and conversion of Shares in any of the following instances:

(a) during any period (other than ordinary holiday or customary weekend closings) when any market or Recognised Exchange is closed and which is the main market or Recognised Exchange for a significant part of investments of the relevant Fund, or in which trading thereon is restricted or suspended;

(b) during any period when an emergency exists as a result of which disposal by the Company of investments which constitute a substantial portion of the assets of the relevant class is not practically feasible; or it is not possible to transfer monies involved in the acquisition or disposition of investments at normal rates of exchange; or it is not practically feasible for the Directors or their delegate fairly to determine the value of any assets of the relevant Fund;

(c) during any breakdown in the means of communication normally employed in determining the price of any of the investments of the relevant Fund or of current prices on any market or Recognised Exchange;

(d) when for any reason the prices of any investments of the relevant class cannot be reasonably, promptly or accurately ascertained;

(e) during any period when remittance of monies which will or may be involved in the realisation of or in the payment for any of the investments of the relevant class cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be carried out at normal rates of exchange;

(f) for the purpose of winding up the Company or terminating any Fund; or

(g) if any other reason makes it impossible or impracticable to determine the value of a substantial portion of the investments of the Company or any Fund.

Notice of any such suspension and notice of the termination of any such suspension shall be given immediately to the Central Bank of Ireland and to the relevant stock exchanges and will be communicated to applicants for shares or to shareholders requesting the repurchase of shares at the time of application or filing of the written request for such repurchase. Where possible, all reasonable steps will be taken to bring any period of suspension to an end as soon as possible.

Registered shares may be transferred by instrument in writing. The instrument of transfer must be accompanied by a certificate from the transferee that it is not acquiring such shares on behalf of or for the benefit of a US Person. In the case of the death of one or joint shareholders, the survivor or survivors will be the only person or persons recognised by the Administrator as having any title to or interest in the shares registered in the names of such joint shareholders. The Directors may decline to register a transfer if they are aware or reasonably believe the transfer would result in the beneficial ownership of shares by a person in contravention of any restrictions on ownership imposed by the Directors or might result in legal, regulatory, pecuniary, taxation or material administrative disadvantage to the relevant Fund or shareholders generally.

The Directors have the power, under the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company, to determine the time and place at which payment for shares must be made. Accordingly, the Directors in exceptional circumstances have discretion to accept subscription monies after the dealing time specified in the Prospectus. In exercising this discretion, the Directors will take into account legal considerations, timing considerations and other relevant considerations.

Review of Business and Future Development

There was no change in the nature of the Company's business during the financial year. The performance review encompasses tracking error and tracking difference disclosures which are key metrics as to how well the Fund has been managed against their benchmark indices. There is a detailed review in the Performance Summary of factors contributing to the Funds' performance. The Directors do not anticipate any change in the structure or investment objectives of the Company.

Shareholder Meetings

The Annual General Meeting of the Company will usually be held in Dublin, normally during the month of December or such other date as the Directors may determine. Notice convening the Annual General Meeting in each year at which the audited financial statements of the Company will be presented (together with the Directors' and Auditors' reports of the Company) will be sent to shareholders at their registered addresses not less than 21 clear days before the date fixed for the meeting. Other general meetings may be convened from time to time by the Directors in such manner as provided by Irish law.

Each of the shares entitles the holder to attend and vote at meetings of the Company and of the Fund represented by those shares. Matters may be determined by a meeting of Shareholders on a show of hands unless a poll is requested by any shareholder having the right to vote at the meeting or unless the chairman of the meeting requests a poll. Each shareholder has one vote on a show of hands. Each share gives the holder one vote in relation to any matters relating to the Company which are submitted to shareholders for a vote by poll. No class of shares confers on the holder thereof any preferential or preemptive rights or any rights to participate in the profits and dividends of any other share class or any voting rights in relation to matters relating solely to any other share class.

Any resolution to alter the class rights of the shares requires the approval of three-quarters of the holders of the shares represented or present and voting at a general meeting of the class. The quorum for any general meeting of the class convened to consider any alteration to the class rights of the shares shall be such number of shareholders being two or more persons whose holdings comprise one-third of the shares.

Each of the shares other than Subscriber shares entitles the shareholder to participate equally on a pro-rata basis in the dividends and net assets of the Fund in respect of which the shares have been issued, save in the case of dividends declared prior to becoming a shareholder.

Management shares entitle the shareholders holding them to attend and vote at all general meetings of the Company but do not entitle the holders to participate in the dividends or net assets of the Company.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- In this environment, Vanguard LifeStrategy 20% Equity UCITS ETF returned 4.67% for both share classes for the period, reflecting its allocations to global stocks and bonds.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- In this environment, Vanguard LifeStrategy 60% Equity UCITS ETF returned 5.72% for both share classes for the period, reflecting its allocations to global stocks and bonds.

Investment Objective

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 14.20% for the fiscal year.
- Japan, which represents more than 50% of the benchmark index, contributed more than half of the index's return. Australia and Hong Kong were also top contributors. China was the only market that posted a negative return.
- Eight of the index's 11 industry sectors posted positive returns. Financial stocks, which make up about 20% of the index, recorded the strongest results and contributed the most to the index's return. Industrials and consumer discretionary were also top contributors. Basic materials and telecommunications detracted most.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard ESG Developed Europe All Cap UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard ESG Developed Europe All Cap UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Developed Europe All Cap Choice Index, a market capitalisation-weighted index composed of large-, mid- and small-cap stocks of companies located in developed markets in Europe.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 6.75% for the fiscal year.
- Returns for the benchmark index were positive in most markets. Germany and the United Kingdom contributed most.
- By sector, financials, which make up more than a quarter of the index by weight and recorded a strong return, were by far the biggest contributor. Health care detracted most from the index's result.
- The ETF's return differed from that of its benchmark during the period, owing in part to the treatment of withholding tax.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in euros.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard ESG Emerging Markets All Cap UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard ESG Emerging Markets All Cap UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Emerging All Cap Choice Index, a market capitalisation-weighted index composed of large-, mid- and small-cap stocks of companies located in emerging markets around the world.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 17.29% for the 12 months.
- China, with the largest weighting and a return near 40%, was by far the top-performing market. Taiwan, South Africa and India also delivered strong results.
- Among sectors, financials, technology and consumer discretionary were the top contributors to performance.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

The Central Bank of Ireland requires a schedule of material changes in the composition of the portfolio during the year. These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. # Vanguard ESG Global All Cap UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard ESG Global All Cap UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Global All Cap Choice Index, a market capitalisation-weighted index composed of large-, mid- and small-cap stocks of companies located in markets around the world.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 15.45% for the period.
- Strong overall performance by US stocks, the largest market, contributed most to returns. China, Japan and Canada were also strong contributors. Denmark was the biggest detractor.
- Financials and technology had outsized performance and contributed most to returns. Consumer discretionary was also a strong contributor. Health care and energy detracted.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard ESG North America All Cap UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard ESG North America All Cap UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE North America All Cap Choice Index, a market capitalisation-weighted index composed of large-, mid- and small-cap stocks of companies located in the United States and Canada.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- Global stocks returned 16.33% for the 12 months, as measured by the FTSE Global All Cap Index in US dollars. The decline of the US dollar particularly boosted returns of European stocks. By region, the United States underperformed, while a number of European markets turned in very strong results that were aided in part by the depreciation of the US dollar.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 14.92%, reflecting continued strength in US equities.
- Technology led performance, supported by its substantial weighting and solid returns. Financials and consumer discretionary also made meaningful contributions. Most industry sectors posted positive results, though health care and energy detracted modestly from overall performance.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

The Central Bank of Ireland requires a schedule of material changes in the composition of the portfolio during the year. These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the year is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

Vanguard FTSE 100 UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE 100 UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE 100 Index, a widely recognised benchmark of the UK market's most highly capitalised blue-chip companies.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- The ETF's benchmark index, representing the UK market's largest companies, returned 11.26% for the 12 months.
- Eight of the benchmark's 11 industry sectors posted positive returns. Financials contributed most to positive results, followed by industrials and consumer staples. Health care, energy, and basic materials detracted most.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE 250 UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE 250 UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE 250 Index, a widely recognised benchmark of mid-capitalised companies of the United Kingdom.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- The ETF's benchmark index, representing the UK market's mid-capitalisation stocks, posted a return of 10.15% for the 12 months.
- Most of the sectors in the benchmark posted modest positive returns, with financials generating the majority of the gains. Only energy had a negative return. While its decline was steep, that sector accounted for less than 2% of the weighting in the index.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE All-World UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE All-World UCITS ETF seeks to provide long-term growth of capital by tracking the performance of the FTSE All-World Index, a market capitalisation-weighted index of common stocks of large- and mid-capitalisation companies in developed and emerging markets.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark returned 16.40% for the fiscal year.
- Most of the countries represented in the index gained ground over the period. The United States – which accounted for more than half of the index's holdings – stood out as the top contributor. Other notable contributors included China, Japan and Germany.
- Nearly all of the index's 11 sectors posted positive returns. Financials, technology and industrials helped performance the most. Health care and energy were the only sectors that detracted from results.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE All-World High Dividend Yield UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE All-World High Dividend Yield UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE All-World High Dividend Yield Index, a free-float-adjusted market capitalisation-weighted index of common stocks of companies, excluding real estate trusts, in developed and emerging markets that pay dividends that are generally higher than average.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- The ETF's benchmark index returned 16.97% for the 12 months.
- All but one of the index's 11 sectors posted positive returns. Financials, which had the largest average weighting in the index as well as the highest returns, contributed most. Energy declined modestly. Most markets posted positive results, some making impressive high-double-digit gains. The US had more modest gains. Given the market's large weighting in the index – more than 40% – it drove much of the returns.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE Developed Asia Pacific ex Japan UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE Developed Asia Pacific ex Japan UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Developed Asia Pacific ex Japan Index, a widely recognised benchmark of the large- and mid-capitalised companies of the developed markets of the Asia-Pacific region, excluding Japan.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 12.97% for the period.
- Returns were positive in all markets except China, which had a very small weighting in the index. The top contributors were Australia, Hong Kong, Singapore and South Korea.
- By sector, financials – which accounted for almost a third of the index by weight – posted the highest returns and contributed most to the index's results. Other contributors included industrials, real estate and technology. The top detractors were telecommunications and basic materials.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE Developed Europe UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE Developed Europe UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Developed Europe Index, a widely recognised benchmark of stock market performance of European developed countries that is composed of the stocks of large- and mid-capitalised companies in developed Europe.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 8.60% for the period.
- All but two of the markets represented in the index had positive returns, with Germany, the United Kingdom, Spain, France and Italy contributing the most. Denmark was the greatest detractor.
- From a sector perspective, financials and industrials contributed most. Utilities and telecommunications also delivered high returns but represented smaller parts of the index. Health care was the greatest detractor.
- The ETF's return differed from that of its benchmark during the period, owing in part to the treatment of withholding tax.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in euros.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the year is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

Vanguard FTSE Developed Europe ex UK UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE Developed Europe ex UK UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Developed Europe ex UK Index, a widely recognised market capitalisation-weighted index of stock market performance of European developed countries, excluding the United Kingdom, that is composed of the stocks of large- and mid-capitalisation companies in that region.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 7.99% for the fiscal year.
- Nearly every market represented in the index turned in a positive performance. Germany, which represented close to one-fifth of the benchmark, was the strongest contributor. Other contributors included Spain, France, Italy and Switzerland. Denmark was the greatest detractor.
- By sector, the greatest contributors were financials and industrials, followed by utilities. The greatest detractors were health care and consumer discretionary.
- The ETF's return differed from that of its benchmark during the period, owing in part to the treatment of withholding tax.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in euros.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE Developed World UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE Developed World UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Developed Index, a widely recognised benchmark of large- and mid-capitalisation companies in global developed markets.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark returned 16.41% for the fiscal year.
- The United States, which represents more than two-thirds of the index, contributed most to the index's results. Japan, Germany and the United Kingdom were the other top contributors. Denmark detracted.
- Ten of the index's 11 industry sectors posted positive returns; health care was the sole detractor. Financials and technology contributed most to the index's results, followed by industrials and consumer discretionary.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE Emerging Markets UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE Emerging Markets UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Emerging Index, a free-float market capitalisation-weighted index of large- and mid-capitalisation companies in multiple emerging markets in Europe, Asia, Africa, Central and South America and the Middle East.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark returned 16.30% for the fiscal year.
- Chinese stocks, which make up nearly a third of the index on average, added the most to performance. Other top contributors included Taiwan and South Africa.
- Nearly all the index's 11 industry sectors posted positive returns. Financials, technology and consumer discretionary helped performance the most. Energy detracted.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE Japan UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE Japan UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Japan Index, a widely recognised benchmark of large- and mid-capitalised companies in Japan.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 14.84% for the fiscal year.
- Most of the benchmark's 11 industry sectors posted positive results. Consumer discretionary and industrials contributed the most, followed by financials, technology and consumer staples. Utilities and energy modestly detracted.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE North America UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE North America Index, a market capitalisation-weighted index of large- and mid-cap companies in the United States and Canada.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- Global stocks returned 16.33% for the 12-month period, as measured by the FTSE Global All Cap Index in US dollars. The decline of the US dollar particularly boosted returns of European stocks. By region, the United States underperformed while a number of European markets turned in very strong results that were aided in part by the depreciation of the US dollar.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 16.05% for the 12 months, driven primarily by the strong performance of US equities, which dominate the benchmark.
- Among the 11 industry sectors, technology led the way – benefiting from both its substantial weighting and solid returns. Financials and consumer discretionary also made significant contributions. While most sectors posted positive results, health care was a notable detractor for the period.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the year is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

Vanguard Germany All Cap UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard Germany All Cap UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Germany All Cap Index, a free-float-adjusted market capitalisation-weighted index composed of large-, mid- and small-cap stocks of companies located in Germany, and is derived from the broader FTSE Global Equity Index Series.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 28.02% for the fiscal year.
- Seven of the index's 11 sectors produced positive returns. Industrials, financials and technology contributed most to returns. Consumer discretionary detracted the most.
- The fund's return differed from that of its benchmark during the period, owing in part to the treatment of withholding tax.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in euros.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

The Central Bank of Ireland requires a schedule of material changes in the composition of the portfolio during the year. These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the year is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

Vanguard S&P 500 UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard S&P 500 UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the Standard & Poor's 500 Index, a widely recognised benchmark of US stock market performance that is composed of the stocks of large US companies.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- Global stocks returned 16.33% for the period, as measured by the FTSE Global All Cap Index in US dollars. The decline of the US dollar particularly boosted returns of European stocks. The United States underperformed while a number of European markets turned in very strong results that were aided in part by the depreciation of the US dollar.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 14.70% for the 12 months.
- Nine of the index's 11 industry sectors posted positive results. Information technology, the largest sector by weight, added the most to returns. Financials, communication services and industrials were among other leading contributors. Health care and energy were the only sectors to detract, with health care posting the weakest performance.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

Returns are based on NAV with income reinvested.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard ESG EUR Corporate Bond UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard ESG EUR Corporate Bond UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the Bloomberg MSCI EUR Corporate Liquid Bond Screened Index, a EUR denominated universe of investment grade corporate fixed-rate bonds.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- Global bonds returned –0.57% for the period, as measured by the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Index in euros on an unhedged basis.
- The ETF's benchmark returned 6.04% for the 12 months.
- Among the largest markets in the index, Italy, Sweden, France and Germany outperformed. The United States and the United Kingdom were among the laggards.
- By sector, bonds issued by financial institutions returned more than those issued by industrial companies and utilities.
- By credit quality, bonds on the bottom rung of the investment-grade ladder returned more than their higher-rated counterparts. By maturity, results were mixed.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in euros.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

The Central Bank of Ireland requires a schedule of material changes in the composition of the portfolio during the year. These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. # Vanguard ESG Global Corporate Bond UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

Vanguard ESG Global Corporate Bond UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the Bloomberg MSCI Global Corporate Float-Adjusted Liquid Bond Screened Index, a multi-currency universe index of investment-grade corporate fixed-rate bonds from both developed and emerging markets.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- Despite concerns about trade, growth and inflation, global financial markets posted strong gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2025.
- Optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about rising interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European stocks were supported by attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. The US announcement of an array of tariffs triggered a sharp sell-off in April, but global markets demonstrated resilience.
- While the US Federal Reserve last cut short-term interest rates in December 2024 to a target range of 4.25%–4.50%, European policymakers continued easing over the 12-month period. The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate seven times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed its Bank Rate four times, to 4.25%.
- Global bonds returned 8.91% for the period, as measured by the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Index in US dollars on an unhedged basis.
- The ETF's benchmark index returned 7.28% for the 12 months.
- By country, Canada, Germany, France and Spain all returned more than 8%. The United States, which has the largest weighting in the index, underperformed the index as a whole, as did Japan and the United Kingdom.
- By sector, bonds issued by financial institutions returned more than those issued by industrial companies and utilities.
- By credit quality, bonds on the bottom rung of the investment-grade ladder returned more than their higher-rated counterparts. By maturity, results were mixed.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.
